General Policies

As a member of the Boys & Girls Club, I agree to the following:

1. Members must check in and out at the front desk with their membership card and membership number.
2. Members and their families are to be respectful and cooperate with all staff and members. Members must listen to staff and respect and obey staff decisions and seek help from them if needed.
3. Members understand the Club will not tolerate any bullying, fighting, or violence in any form.
4. Members must take good care of the facility and its equipment. Any member not doing so, may be suspended from using said equipment.
5. Members are expected to use appropriate language at the Club. Inappropriate language, which includes the use of profanity, obscenity, and/or abusive language, will not be tolerated. They should always resolve conflicts peacefully and with words.
6. Members and their families are expected to exhibit good sportsmanship during all Club activities and programs.
7. Members must follow all local and state laws pertaining to drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. Our Club and the surrounding grounds is a drug and tobacco free environment.
8. Members are strongly encouraged to keep electronic devices (iPods, iPads, Nintendo DS, cell phones, etc.) at home. The Club is not responsible for any lost or stolen property.
9. Members are expected to leave the Boys & Girls Club upon closing for that day. Anyone who is not picked up on time is subject to a late fee.
10. Members will be expected to respect the property of others.

I will treat others as I want to be treated, and therefore, will not exhibit any behaviors that would be harmful or hurtful to myself or others. I understand that any violation of the above rules may result in suspension of membership privileges.
